2019 AWARDS FOR ENGINEERING EXCELLENCE CLIENT OF THE YEAR AWARD

Nominations are being accepted for the 2019 ACEC-BC Client of the Year Award, to recognize the most outstanding Clients of ACEC-BC members, and to promote and encourage best practices by Clients. Past recipients of this award include the BC Ministry of Transportation and Infrastructure (2016), City of Surrey (2017), and City of Coquitlam (2018).

ELIGIBILITY

All Clients of ACEC-BC members are eligible although clients who are selected as “Client of the Year” are ineligible for three years after the award is presented. All members may nominate any of their Clients regardless of project size or type, including both private and public sector clients. The nomination may be based on one specific project or the corporate approach by the client over a period of time.

For Clients with multiple offices, regional offices are eligible for consideration, individually as well as the overall organization.

Consulting engineering firms are not eligible. Previous award recipients are not eligible again until 3 years following the year in which they received the award.

ENTRY MATERIALS

1. LETTER OF NOMINATION: (two pages maximum) should provide an overview of the nominee, noting the reasons for nomination. The judging criteria will include, but not be limited to:

- appropriate procurement and delivery methodology that leads to clear scope
- excellent change management
- use of fair and balanced contracts
- appropriate risk assessment management and allocation
- encouragement of a culture of collaboration and team ethic
- communication and relationship management
- engagement of consulting engineering community

2. ADDITIONAL MATERIALS: citations, media releases, media coverage and other materials supporting the nomination are encouraged.

Nominations are to be submitted (.pdf format preferred) to:
