2020 Meritorious Achievement Award

Nominations are being accepted for the 2020 ACEC-BC Meritorious Achievement Award, to recognize and celebrate an individual consulting engineer who has contributed significantly to engineering, the development of the industry, and the community.

Eligibility

The award is intended for professional engineers who have worked for a substantial portion of their career in British Columbia within an ACEC-BC member firm. The award is also open to exceptional individuals who are not professional engineers.

Entry Materials Package

- 1. Letter of Nomination: please provide a two page (maximum) overview of the nominee, noting their contributions to:
  - The business and stature of consulting engineering in BC (50% weighting)
  - Engineering excellence and industry leadership (25% weighting)
  - Professional associations, engineering societies, educational institutes, community groups, political organizations and volunteer organizations (25% weighting)
- 2. Letters of Reference: the nomination package should include two letters of reference from outside of the nominee's current or most recent firm.
- 3. Additional Materials: citations, media releases, media coverage and other materials supporting the nomination are encouraged. Electronic submissions (.pdf format) are preferred.
- 4. Contact Information: contact information for the nominee and a primary contact to support ACEC-BC in preparing for the award presentation.

How to Submit

Email your nomination package to info@acec-bc.ca by January 31, 2020.
